

BINDI SERGARDI CHIANTI COLLI SENESI 'AL CANAPO'

100% Sangiovese. Ruby red in color. It is very fresh and pleasantly rounded, with an elegant and intense bouquet of fresh cherries, strawberries, and pink grapefruit, as well as floral hints of violets. Well-structured, soft, and harmonious. Drink young in order to appreciate its freshness and aromas.

The 10–15-year-old vines are planted in limestone soils at an elevation of 980ft. The vineyard orientation is north to south with a southern aspect. From the I Colli estate. Fermented with wild yeasts in stainless steel vats. The grapes are destemmed, then macerated for around 10 days at controlled temperatures. The wine is raked, then aged for about 6 months. It is filtered and fined before being bottled.

The Bindi Sergardi family heritage is one closely tied with the history of the Chianti and Chianti Classico region. For twenty-three generations—since 1349—the Bindi Sergardi family has been an integral force in the wine of Siena, deeply involved in the politics, economics and culture of the region. The current manager, Alessandra Casini Bindi Sergardi, joined the company in 2005 following the 700 years-old tradition of her family in wine making. Inspired by her father, Nicolo, and the courageous example of her grandmother, Chiara, and great grandmother, Elisabetta, she gave new light to the family business. They make wine from their three estates: Tenuta Mocenni, Tenuta I Colli, and Tenuta Marciannella, which combined have 250 acres planted to vine. They are true Sangiovese specialists through their work in the vineyards and cellar. They make wines that have a strong cultural identity and express their bonds with the land. Family stories, ancient traditions, and ancestral values handed down through the years; each wine pays tribute to the places and persons that have made the family what it is today.
