

COUNTY LINE VINEYARDS RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY ZINFANDEL

100% Zinfandel. Black plum, ripe cassis, and juicy huckleberry leap from the glass along with blueberry and fig. Savory notes of dried thyme, marjoram, and spice add an enticing balance to the bright fruit. The juicy start and spry acidity round to refined tannins with a lingering mouthfeel. An enticing accompaniment for a host of occasions. Enjoy with a fine steak or while enjoying a sunset. Organic.

Traditional winemaking techniques and a shorter élevage in neutral French oak barrels or stainless steel, each wine is made to provide a cool-climate appellation snapshot. Indigenous fermentation. Barrel aged in neutral French oak. Bottled unfiltered. These food friendly comfort wines are crafted to drink gracefully in the present and be enjoyed throughout the seasons.

County Line is a side project of acclaimed California winemaker Eric Sussman. Drawing on his experience and connections at Radio-Coteau, Sussman works closely with winegrowers in some of the most unique and distinctive vineyard sites in Sonoma and Mendocino Counties. The wines are true to place, honest expressions of the finest cool-climate sites in the North coast. Serious wines from serious vineyard sources; made for daily drinking.
