

COUNTY LINE VINEYARDS 'BEADS' PET-NAT ROSÉ

Sparkling Rosé of Pinot Noir. Watermelon pink. Lively, with vibrant acidity and a delightful gentle fizz. Fruity notes of bright peach, fleshy red apple and ripe strawberry spring forth. A pleasant cider-like fermentation funk deftly mingles with hints of lime and dried rose, leading to a refreshingly bone-dry finish. A joyful and delicate sparkler. Exciting by itself, or paired with smoked salmon or warm baked brie. Organic.

Organically grown Anderson Valley fruit. Handcrafted in Sebastopol, California.
Bottled unfiltered.

County Line is a side project of acclaimed California winemaker, Eric Sussman. Drawing on his experience and connections at Radio-Coteau, Sussman works closely with winegrowers in some of the most unique and distinctive vineyard sites in Sonoma and Mendocino Counties. The wines are true to place—honest expressions of the finest cool-climate sites in the North Coast. Serious wines from serious vineyard sources, made for daily drinking.
