

PIERRE DUPOND JULIENAS 'LES CAPITANS'

100% Gamay. Very deep purple color. Powerful and elegant aromas of violet and ripe black fruits, spices, licorice and cocoa. Bright, red-fruit flavors. Full and complex with powerful, silky tannins. Fleshy and dense. An echo of the aromas on the lingering finish. A great food wine! Perfect with cold cuts, red grilled meats or a cheese platter. Try paired with a leek pie or roasted Turkey.

“Les Capitans” is located North-East from the village of Juliénas on stony from piedmont and old alluviums. The grapes are partially destemmed and undergo quite a long maceration, in the objective of obtaining a complete and long-aging wine. Aging in vats.

A historical wine family from their region, the Dupond family has been commercializing their wines since 1860. The successive generations contributed in building the reputation of the Pierre Dupond wines, that you can find today on the best tables all around the world. Since the beginning, they have sought the uniqueness and typicity from their terroirs in the pure respect of the tradition.
