

WINE ENTHUSIAST

90

POINTS

Editors' Choice

Terre Rouge 2014 Tête-à-Tête Red (Sierra Foothills)

This full-bodied wine is packed with fruit and spice notes and is especially broad and mouth-filling. Made from mostly Grenache and Mourvèdre, with a dash of Syrah, it has generous ripe plum, macerated cherry and black pepper flavors that spread across the palate and linger on the finish.

— J.G. Published 12/1/2017

WINE ENTHUSIAST

90

POINTS

Editors' Choice

Terre Rouge 2014 Tête-à-Tête Red (Sierra Foothills)

This full-bodied wine is packed with fruit and spice notes and is especially broad and mouth-filling. Made from mostly Grenache and Mourvèdre, with a dash of Syrah, it has generous ripe plum, macerated cherry and black pepper flavors that spread across the palate and linger on the finish.

— J.G. Published 12/1/2017

WINE ENTHUSIAST

90

POINTS

Editors' Choice

Terre Rouge 2014 Tête-à-Tête Red (Sierra Foothills)

This full-bodied wine is packed with fruit and spice notes and is especially broad and mouth-filling. Made from mostly Grenache and Mourvèdre, with a dash of Syrah, it has generous ripe plum, macerated cherry and black pepper flavors that spread across the palate and linger on the finish.

— J.G. Published 12/1/2017

WINE ENTHUSIAST

90

POINTS

Editors' Choice

Terre Rouge 2014 Tête-à-Tête Red (Sierra Foothills)

This full-bodied wine is packed with fruit and spice notes and is especially broad and mouth-filling. Made from mostly Grenache and Mourvèdre, with a dash of Syrah, it has generous ripe plum, macerated cherry and black pepper flavors that spread across the palate and linger on the finish.

— J.G. Published 12/1/2017