*"A medium-dry style made from the Verdlho grape,
This wine is fruity While always shot through with Madeira's trademark acidity. Nuts, spice, old wood & an intense juiciness make this a good aperitif." (RV) (2/2019)*

*"Scents of caramel & lemon pith contrast this wine's compressed flavors, pulling broad, smoky highlights out of the earthy celery-root notes.
It feels round, with enough brightness to balance both the sweetness & the earthiness. Complete on its own, this offers intriguing possibilities with savory desserts, like a chestnut cream."*
