

O.R.A. COLLECTIVE MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO 'ABBONDANZA'

100% Montepulciano. A deep, dark ruby hue. The nose reveals chocolate and the dark sweetness of ripe black currants. On the palate black cherry and plum, framed by herbs and a touch of vanilla. The finish is persistent, a slow ebb of fruit and spice that keeps you coming back for another sip. Pair with rich pasta dishes, braised meats and hard cheeses the earthier and more unctuous, the better. Organic.

From Italy's Abruzzo region, crafted from grapes cultivated between the Gran Sasso mountains and the Adriatic Sea. The vineyards are dry farmed and situated at elevations of 250-350 meters above sea level. Clay-rich soils with significant limestone and sand content. The grapes are harvested by hand and fermented naturally on the skins in stainless steel, then aged in French oak for six months. Bottled unfiltered and unfiltered.

Change starts from the ground up. And for O.R.A. Collective, that means rethinking the way we farm, the way we make wine, the way we care for the land, all across Italy. Meet O.R.A. Collective, a grassroots network of farms and winemakers that through regenerative organic farming crafts natural wine that speaks of the land it comes from pure, real, and rooted in nature. But it's more than wine, it's a commitment to healthier soils, thriving ecosystems, and a planet that can breathe. O.R.A. Collective wines are real, honest, and made to be shared. Crafted through regenerative organic farming, they're full of life, fresh, easy to drink, and free from unnecessary additives. With low sulphites and low sugar, they let the land do the talking. And because we work as a collective, we keep our wines affordable, proving that good, natural wine doesn't have to be exclusive. More than just wine, it's a way to give back to the earth, grow together, and work to make a positive impact one bottle at a time.
