

WEINGUT MARKUS HUBER NON-ALCOHOLIC SPARKLING ROSÉ, LAYLA

Pinot Noir and Zweigelt. Delicate notes of strawberries, peach, citrus, and red berries, with a light body, crisp acidity, and a dry, refreshing finish. Perfect as an aperitif or paired with seafood, grilled meats, salads – or anytime alcohol isn't on the menu.

Crafted from Pinot Noir and Zweigelt sourced across select vineyards in the Traisental Valley, Austria. Layla Rosé offers a refined, alcohol-free option with true varietal character. After 2 hours of skin contact, the grapes are fermented in stainless steel, aged on lees with bâtonnage for 3 months, then matured for 1 year before gentle dealcoholization via low-pressure vacuum distillation – preserving freshness and aroma.

The Huber family has wine growing roots dating back more than 220 years. The winery in Reichersdorf was founded in 1648 and is in its 10th generation of family winemaking. Currently run by Markus Huber who took over four hectares from his father in 2000. Up to that point they had been producing the wines served in the family restaurant. Markus' outstanding ability to manage the winery with sensitivity and consistency, both in the vineyards and the cellars, has ensured that in a very short time he has established Huber wines as an internationally acclaimed leading producer in Austria. "Sustainable development, carefully controlling the harvest and meticulous pruning are the most natural and important prerequisites for successful winemaking." Markus Huber
