

CELLIER D'EGUILLES COTEAUX D'AIX EN PROVENCE ROSÉ 'LES CARDONNIERES'

Pale, salmon-pink color. Fresh, delicate scents of strawberries, white peach and citrus blossom, with hints of Mediterranean herbs. A delicate, dry and refreshing wine characteristic of the region, it is noted for its bright acidity and subtle fruitiness. Clean, refreshing, medium-length finish. Ideal for casual, sunny-day sipping. Excellent with salads, green vegetables, grilled fish or as an aperitif.

From vineyards near the village of Eguilles, Provence, France. Limestone and stony soils (argilo-calcaire). The cooperative employs integrated farming methods. To preserve peak acidity and prevent premature oxidation, the harvest is conducted at night when temperatures are lowest. Once at the winery, the grapes are immediately pressed. After a period of cold settling fermentation at controlled low temperature.

Le Cellier d'Eguilles is a historic wine cooperative located in the heart of the village of Eguilles, approximately 6 miles northwest of Aix-en-Provence. Established in 1923, it is the oldest company in the village and serves as a central hub for local viticulture. A cooperative of approximately 45 winemakers who pool their resources and multi-generational expertise. The cooperative manages approx. 617 acres of vines.
