

PICCOLO GOCCIO BRUT GLERA

100% Glera. A refreshing, highly aromatic sparkling wine defined by a clean bouquet of white flowers, pear blossom and a touch of French-milled soap. On the palate, its lively, frothy bubbles carry citrusy acidity and a hint of fruity sweetness that makes it an ideal, approachable aperitif. This versatile quaffable sparkler is perfect for casual settings and pairs effortlessly with fried snacks, light antipasti or creamy cheeses, where its effervescence can cut through rich flavors.

Sourced from the Friuli region of northeastern Italy. The vines were planted in 2013 and are situated at an altitude of 100m on south-facing slopes. The soil is a mix of clay and limestone. The vineyards are farmed using sustainable practices. Low-temperature fermentation in stainless steel tanks. Aged for 6 months in stainless steel to settle and develop its profile before a light filtration.

Unlike traditional method sparkling wines, it is bottled with CO2 produced naturally by the fermentation process.

Since 1994, California-based importer Oliver McCrum has specialized in transparent Italian wines that prioritize varietal purity and fresh acidity over oak influence. His Piccolo Goccio (little sip) project is a curated series of high-quality, accessible table wines, designed for casual, everyday enjoyment. By collaborating with established artisanal estates across Italy (often long-term partners) McCrum bottles site-specific cuvées that emphasize both quaffability and sustainability, utilizing eco-friendly practices like lightweight glass and capsule-free packaging.
